14th December 2011

Dear Parent/Carer

I am writing to advise you of the arrangements for the end of term.

The School will close for the Christmas break on Friday 16th December at 3.00pm.

The last day of term is a “free” non-uniform (mufti) day and we ask that students resist wearing any Christmas jewellery or adornments until the last day of term. Traditionally, we encourage all students and staff to donate to the Salvation Army. Our local Salvation Army representative advises me that the challenges facing some families in our communities this Christmas are greater than ever.

As many of you know, we already donate Christmas Hampers and, together with the proceeds of our collections on Friday, our giving can make a real difference. We know this because representatives from the Salvation Army have visited our assemblies to impress upon our students how valuable their charitable contributions are and how much they will be used to support families in difficulties throughout this Christmas and New Year period.

The school will re-open for students on Wednesday 4th January 2012.

I hope you and your family enjoy a Happy Christmas and a peaceful New Year.

Yours sincerely

Michael Browne
Headteacher
